Nicolas S. Howard II

"Nick" The Barber

Over 19 years ago, at the age of 12, my best friend came to my house and said "cut my hair". After that, I practiced and got better and better. Soon I was cutting students hair in college to make a little spending change. After earning a business management degree from Prairie View A&M University in 1993, I worked in my field for a couple of years and decided that working for others was not what I wanted to do anymore. That's when I started working on getting my barber license and finished from Southeast Barber College in 1997.

While in barber school, I won a trophy for participating in the Houston Barber Association competition. I also participated in the first annual "CutFest" at the George R. Brown Convention Center in 1999.

Over the years I have been blessed with a great professional clientele that has been very loyal to me. Some of my clientele includes Glenn Jones, Moses Malone, Rodney McCray, Cynthia Cooper, Gary Payton, Penny Hardaway and the late Kim Perrot.

The idea of Barber Dolls Calendar 2001 came to me when I saw a barber poster and I thought that I could really display the beauty and sex appeal of a woman with a barber cut. The models I selected all have barber style hair cuts and add a little sexy sassy-ness to it.

I am proud and blessed to have worked with a great group of women. Since the calendar came out in October 2000, we have been getting a great response from people and sales are going really good. The calendar can be partially view on the internet at SalonNicholas.com website.

SalonNicholas is located at 6420 Richmond Avenue, Suite 660, 713-334-6425. You can look for me in my first cameo appearance in the movie "Wannz Be A Baller" with Lil Troy. I am currently looking for new models for next years' calendar. Call SalonNicholas for more information.
